

Polo Practice Shed

Herrick Archives Number H 309

Aerial photograph B 17938-2 in Photoarchives shows a small structure east of the northeast corner of the Artillery Barn (012). The date of the photograph is October 4, 1958.

This building apparently also shows on the July 1963 edition of Sheet 56 in the book of campus maps in the University Archives.

Professor Emeritus Lawrence Kunkle stated on July 6, 1972 that this building was a practice polo shed, in which officers practiced swinging polo mallets while sitting on wooden horses.

No other information concerning this building has been noted.
